

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF RHODE ISLAND

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

Plaintiff,

v.

Case No.: 1:21-mj-00062-LDA

MacKenzy Scott

Defendant.

ORDER OF COURT

The financial inability of the defendant to retain counsel having been determined by the Court, it is hereby ordered that pursuant to the guidelines of the Criminal Justice Act (CJA) 18 U.S.C. § 3006A, an attorney from the Court's CJA Panel be appointed to represent the above-named defendant in this case until further order of the Court. The Clerk shall enter counsel's appearance. A notice of appearance need not be filed.

It is so ordered.

Dear Counsel:

Thank you for accepting an appointment under the Criminal Justice Act. Your appearance has been entered on behalf of the defendant. If you have not applied for a separate PACER account that provides fee exempt status for CJA related work related to this appointment, you should contact the PACER Service Center at 800-676-6856 to acquire one.

The United States District Court for the District of Rhode Island uses an electronic submission and payment system called eVoucher to process vouchers under the Criminal Justice Act (CJA). The court's website at www.rid.uscourts.gov contains many important forms, training materials and instructions as well as links to the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and District of Rhode Island Local Rules.

Please visit the website and review the CJA Resources section for CJA eVoucher instructions, important announcements and links to helpful sites, including the court's CJA Plan. Please note, a CJA 20 voucher must be submitted no later than 45 day after the final disposition of the case.

Please refer to the CJA Form 20 Instructions for directions on how to create a voucher, and to the additional resourced below:
